THE RULES OF DEBATE AND ORDER

1. Presiding Officer

The function of the Presiding Officer is to preside, with all that that implies. The Presiding Officer should not attempt to control the decision of the Court, but may express opinions on any matter before the Court. If the Presiding Officer wishes to introduce a motion or to present a report, the Presiding Officer shall ask another member to preside, and while out of the Chair shall be an ordinary member of the Court and must not assume the chair until the matter is disposed of. The Presiding Officer does not vote except in the event of a tie.

2. Questions of Privilege and Order

(a) A point of order may be raised while a matter is pending or while another member has the floor. When a point of order is raised it must be dealt with by the Presiding Officer without debate. If a member has the floor when a point of order is raised by another member, that member must yield the floor until the Presiding Officer has made a ruling.

(b) Any member of the Court may appeal from a ruling of the Chair, but only at the time when the ruling is made. But where a ruling is a precedent the general question of its correctness may be brought up later when there is no business pending, but cannot then affect the business transacted under the ruling.

(c) When an appeal from a ruling is made, the Presiding Officer should state the point at issue, and may give reasons for the ruling. The Secretary shall then put the question in the following form: "Is the ruling of the Moderator (or such other title by which the Presiding Officer is known) sustained?" If the vote is a tie, the Presiding Officer is sustained. The Secretary shall declare the result.

3. Orders of the Day

- (a) When an agenda has been adopted that does not specify the time for its items, such items are considered without time limit, unless the Court decides otherwise by a two-thirds (2/3) majority of those voting.
- (b) When an agenda has been adopted that specifies the time for particular items, such time shall be strictly adhered to, unless the Court decides otherwise by a two-thirds (2/3) majority of those voting.(2010)

4. Order of Priority on Motions

- (a) To close.(2010)
- (b) To fix the time to adjourn.
- (c) To adjourn.
- (d) To take an immediate vote (two-thirds (2/3) vote required).
- (e) To limit or extend limits of debate (two-thirds (2/3) vote required).
- (f) To postpone definitely.
- (g) To commit or refer.
- (h) To amend.
- (i) To postpone indefinitely.
- (j) To deal with main motions.

5. Procedures on Motion

- (a) A member of the Court proposes a motion.
- (b) It is seconded. If there is no seconder, the motion fails.
- (c) When the motion is duly moved and seconded, the Presiding Officer states the motion and declares it open for discussion. If the mover has not already done so, the mover has the right to introduce the discussion.
- (d) A motion is out of order when it conflicts with a resolution previously passed at the same session unless it is a motion to reconsider.
- (e) Without the permission of the Court, no member may speak more than once on any motion or on any amendment thereto.
- (f) The mover of a motion has the right of reply before any vote is taken thereon or on any amendment thereto. Even when the Court has directed that an immediate vote be taken on a motion, the mover still has the right of reply.
- (g) When a motion has two (2) or more clearly defined parts or points of issue, and any two (2) members request that it be divided, a separate vote must be taken on each part.
- (h) Any motion may be withdrawn but only with the consent of its mover and seconder.
- (i) After a motion is under consideration a question of order cannot be raised against it unless the motion is ultra vires.

6. Procedure on Amendments

- (a) Any member except the mover or the seconder of the motion may move a relevant amendment thereto.
- (b) An amendment must be seconded, and if there is no seconder it fails.

- (c) A motion is amended by striking out certain words or clauses, adding certain words or clauses, or striking out all after the word “Resolved” (or the word “that”), and inserting another motion that will dispose of the matter. An amendment that merely negatives a motion before the Court is out of order.
- (d) There may be an amendment to the amendment, provided it has been duly seconded.
- (e) There is no limit to the number of amendments, but at any one time there can be before the Court only the motion, the amendment, and the amendment to the amendment.
- (f) When an amendment is disposed of, other relevant amendments may be proposed.
- (g) The discussion is always on the immediately pending question, and it must be voted on first. When a motion, an amendment, and an amendment to the amendment are before the Court, the two first named are “pending questions” and the last is the “immediately pending question.” When the immediately pending question is disposed of, the one above it then becomes the immediately pending question, until the whole matter is disposed of.
- (h) When an amendment carries, it is not thereby adopted as the finding of the Court, but only changes the proposition under discussion.
- (i) When a motion, an amendment, and an amendment to the amendment are before a Court, three (3) separate votes including “for” and “against” must be taken. The first determines whether the amendment shall be amended, the second determines whether the motion shall be amended, and the third determines whether the motion, in whatever form it is then before the Court, shall be adopted or rejected.

7. Procedure on Voting

- (a) A vote is generally taken viva voce or by a show of hands. The Presiding Officer may ask for a standing vote. Upon motion duly passed, the vote shall be taken by ballot. In all actions of Church Courts regarding membership in the Order of Ministry requiring voting procedure, the vote shall be taken by ballot unless waived by unanimous consent; that is, on motion to waive, no dissenting vote is cast. See also sections C.5.7 and D.4.4 of the bylaws.
- (b) In the event of a tie, the Presiding Officer shall cast the deciding vote.
- (c) An affirmative vote on a motion does not validate any motion that is ultra vires of the Court, or that contravenes a decision of a higher Court.
- (d) In the conduct of United Church business, voting by proxy or by mail-in ballot is not permitted. Voting by telephone or by email is permitted only when it occurs during a meeting that is held in a manner that allows all of the persons participating to communicate with one another simultaneously and instantaneously.(2010)

8. Procedure on Motion to Reconsider

- (a) A motion to reconsider may be made at any time when the floor is vacant; but the actual reconsideration has only the same priority as the motion to be reconsidered.
- (b) A motion to reconsider must be moved by a member who voted with the majority. Any member may second.
- (c) If a motion to reconsider is dealt with at the same meeting in which the original motion was adopted, it will fail unless two-thirds (2/3) of those voting are in favour thereof. If a motion to reconsider is dealt with at a subsequent meeting of the Court, a majority of those voting determines the question.
- (d) When any motion to reconsider has been duly seconded, all action on the original motion is suspended until the motion to reconsider has been disposed of. No motion to reconsider can be entertained by the Court where action has already been taken under the original motion.

(e) A motion cannot be reconsidered twice unless materially changed on the first reconsideration. If a motion to reconsider has been lost, it cannot be repeated.

(f) A motion to reconsider is debatable only when the motion to be reconsidered is debatable. It cannot be amended, postponed indefinitely, or committed.

9. Motion to Refer

A motion to refer is debatable, but only as to the wisdom and manner of the proposed referral. It requires only a majority of those voting.

10. Motion to Postpone Indefinitely

A motion to postpone indefinitely, when in order, must be put without debate. If the motion is lost, it cannot be repeated or reconsidered. If carried, the motion along with all amendments is removed from debate. At any time it may be brought back before the Court by motion duly seconded and carried. In such case the question is before the Court in exactly the position it held at the time it was removed from debate. A motion to postpone indefinitely can have no conditions attached to it. If a time is specified, it immediately ceases to be a motion to postpone indefinitely and becomes a motion to postpone definitely and is debatable.(2007)

11. Motion to Take an Immediate Vote

If a motion to take an immediate vote (for which a two-thirds (2/3) vote is required) is carried, the vote shall be taken immediately. The mover of the main motion, however, shall have the right to reply before the vote is taken. If such a motion fails, debate on the main motion shall continue. A motion to take an immediate vote is not debatable.

12. Motion to Adjourn

A motion to adjourn is intended to suspend a meeting until another time. A motion to adjourn is in order only if there is already an agreed-upon time and place for resuming the meeting, or if the motion specifies a time and place for resuming the meeting. A motion to adjourn requires a seconder. Only the conditions attached to the motion to adjourn, such as time and place for resuming the meeting, are debatable; the wisdom of adjourning is not debatable.(2010)

13. Closing a Meeting (2010)

(a) A motion to close is intended to terminate a meeting. A new meeting may commence, at a future time, by previous agreement or by call. There can be no conditions attached to a motion to close. A motion to close requires a seconder. A motion to close is not debatable.(2010)

(b) When all the business and purposes of a meeting have been attended to and the Presiding Officer is satisfied that there is no further business before the Court, the Presiding Officer may declare that the meeting is closed, without the need for a motion to close.(2010)

14. Committee of the Whole

(a) Any Court, for greater freedom of discussion, may, on motion duly made, seconded, and carried, move into a Committee of the Whole. Any such motion is neither debatable nor amendable, except only as to the scope of the subject to be discussed. The motion is not in order if there is a pending motion to adjourn the meeting or to postpone discussion on the subject.(2007)

(b) The first act of the Committee of the Whole is to appoint a chairperson and a secretary. A separate minute of the proceedings is taken.(2007)

(c) The ordinary limitations of debate do not prevail in the Committee of the Whole. The chairperson restates the matter(s) to be considered. Discussion is then opened and is conducted informally. Motions need not be seconded. Unless the resolution creating the Committee of the Whole imposes restrictions, there are no restrictions, within reason, on the number of times a member may speak or on the length of speeches, except that priority is given to a member who has not yet spoken.(2007)

(d) When the deliberations of the Committee of the Whole are concluded, the Committee will dispose of a motion that the Committee rise and report; this motion does not require seconding and is neither debatable nor amendable. When this motion is passed, a report is prepared and submitted to the chairperson of the main meeting, who reconvenes the main meeting.(2007)

(e) A Committee of the Whole can neither adjourn nor terminate; it only can report back to the main meeting. It can, of course, recess briefly to prepare its report.(2007)

15. General

(a) When a member utters language that another member considers offensive, the latter may require that the words be taken down. The speaker is then allowed to proceed. When the speaker yields the floor, the words complained of may be considered and dealt with. Such words may not be privileged.

(b) Members of any Court should at all times therein conduct themselves with dignity, fairness, and understanding. The prime concern should be the good order and welfare of the church.

(c) In any point not covered in The Manual, the parliamentary rules accepted in Canada (Bourinot) shall be followed.

Candidates

Rev. John Noordhof, Candidate for Admission St. Lawrence Pastoral Charge, ON Salem and St. Andrews-Knox United Churches

I am a child of God.

I was born and raised in Strathroy, Ontario, the youngest of six children born to immigrant parents from the Netherlands. We were a very religious family, attending church regularly. The faith of my upbringing became my own. After watching the movie, The Mission, I accepted the call to ministry.

In 1992 I was ordained in the Christian Reformed Church and served three churches: Dresden ON, Iron Springs, AB and Williamsburg ON, before seeking admission into the United Church of Canada. Currently, I am serving an appointment with the St. Lawrence Pastoral Charge.

I am a philatelist, a bit of a cyclist and a birder, as well as having the desire to travel...

Terrie Chedore, Candidate for Commissioning Iroquois United Church, Iroquois United Church, ON

I am a candidate for Diaconal Ministry in the United Church of Canada. I joined the UCC in 1990 where I began a slow but steady journey towards ministry. I am also a visual artist - a diaconal artist. From my perspective, Diaconal Ministry is best described — not as a role or a way of doing ministry — but as a particular way of viewing the world. This lends a creative and imaginative approach to life and our Christian journey — a perspective that has served me well. I am grateful for the opportunity to bring those two pieces of my life (the faithful follower and the visual artist) together in a rich and diverse ministry as a Diaconal Minister in the United Church of Canada.

Thank you to everyone who supported me throughout this journey; especially my husband Bill who has walked beside me through all our challenges.

Representative of the General Council OfficeCatherine (Kate) Rodd
Executive Officer of Communications

Catherine (Kate) Rodd is The United Church of Canada's Executive Officer of Communications. She has worked with the church for more than 20 years as a writer, television/multimedia producer and communications strategist. She began her career as a journalist at Maclean's magazine, was a columnist with several Canadian magazines and a contributing editor to The United Church Observer. She holds a B.A. (Hons) from Trent University, studied French in Trois-Pistoles, Quebec at the Université d'Aix-Marseille, France and has recently completed a certificate in Digital Strategy and Communications Management at the University of Toronto.

RetireesRev. Brian Copeland

Forty years in ordered Ministry has taken me from Northern Saskatchewan to suburban Ottawa. It has been my privilege and a great joy to serve the church of Christ through all these years in a variety of ministries. I have met and worked with and shared life with such incredible people, all part of the one body but each having different gifts. I have truly received much more than I have been able to give and in so many ways I am blessed beyond compare. This calling has been rich with purpose and abundant grace. I loved the continuous changing scenes of moving from preaching to pastoral care to evening meetings. It was a dynamic time and each evening I recalled God's presence with thanksgiving. Guided by the Spirit, I will continue to serve in new ways. Thank you for the gift of being a part of this ministry of the United Church of Canada

Rev. Dawn ClarkRev. Paul Evans

Rev. Elizabeth Tucker

After 17 years of active ministry in the 3 point charge of Elmsley Lombardy. Pastoral Charge, I retired last November from Bethel United Rideau Ferry. I received many treasures during my years there and am remembering especially:

- The beauty and comfort of the renovated manse which held blessings of laughter, work and peace as meetings came and went;
- The wonder of children's laughter, song and shouts in crazy games as inspired leaders from our and neighboring Anglican and Roman Catholic Churches led Bible Camps over many summers;
- *The Congregations' support and flexibility with families on Sundays as we expanded our services to include stories by Benjamin puppet, with music makers and much interaction;
- *The joy and tears of the many special services and music.

I am remembering my own journey too, that as I stepped into my faith, so the community stepped into theirs. They trusted me to tolerate, teach, inspire, and get to know them and their children. I was invited into their groups and homes and have found strength, courage, comfort and love. I cherish this time and carry it with me into an unknown future.

Janet Nield, Diaconal Minister

I am a diaconal minister, commissioned in 2013. But I have roots in the United Church that go back to baptism at Coxwell UC in Toronto, Sunday school at Emmanuel in Ottawa, confirmation at St. Giles in Vancouver, and a 25 year association with Glebe-St. James in Ottawa. I started there as a soloist in the choir; did youth ministry as a volunteer producing umpteen plays and musicals; and led the Sunshine Choir (with twenty kids under the age of six). I joined the ministry team as staff associate in 2002, responsible for faith formation for all ages. Then came the six years of working and studying, completing an MTS at Queen's in 2011, and a certificate in Diaconal Ministry in 2013. I have degrees in Drama, Music, and Education; and had a great summer and fall completing the Ministry of Supervision course at UTC. The last five years have been rich and rewarding ones, serving in solo ministry with the good people of Navan-

Vars United Church. And I will be sorry to leave them, but eager to continue my volunteer work with Camp Awesome, the Inter-church Refugee Group, the Pastoral Relations team, and DUCC (Diakonia of the UCC) as we prepare for our biennial conference in May of 2020. I am married to Jack Nield, and we have a blended family, grand-parenting thirteen grandchildren in six families. Trinity-St. Andrew's in Brighton where he remained until he retired from full time ministry in July 2018.

The Reverend Dr. Karen Boivin

"I am the vine; you are the branches. If you remain in me and I in you, you will bear much fruit." John 15:5

Rev. Karen's journey into ministry began as a young adult when she unwittingly attached herself to Christ the vine through a yoga meditation practice. She had an experience of God that reminded her of the unconditional love of Jesus that she had learned about in UCC Sunday School. Little did she know she was on a long nineteen year spiritual journey to Ordered ministry when she returned to the denomination by joining Orleans U.C. She took a Theology Certificate from St. Paul's University out of interest, went on to be a Licensed Lay Worship Leader, and then served Southminster, Carp/Dunrobin, Orleans and Tottenham/Rich Hill P.C.'s as a Candidate for Ministry. Ordained twelve years ago she has served Maxville/Apple Hill, Carp/Dunrobin, Merrickville, Ashton/Munster, and City View United Churches.

Karen believes that a greater willingness to openly discuss spiritual experiences in mainline Protestant churches would be a bridge for more conversation with other denominations and religions, and the spiritual but not religious. To that end she completed a Doctor of Ministry in Reformed Spirituality from Pittsburgh Theological Seminary. Her thesis project was entitled "A Reformed Understanding of Union with Christ: The Role of Reading and Praying Scripture." Rev. Karen's other passion in ministry is for preaching and worship design.

During her retirement she looks forward to spending more time with her family, living a more ecologically friendly lifestyle, and playing lots of Cape Breton fiddle music, and djembe drum rhythms.

Margaret Patterson, D.L.M.

In my spiritual journey, The United Church of Canada is the place where I discover "home".

I have experienced other "homes" since my family of origin has records of active participation in the Presbyterian, Methodist, Free Will Baptist, Primitive Baptist, Salvation Army, and Wesleyan Churches. I have 2 sisters-in-law and 2 grandchildren who are baptized within the Catholic tradition. Thus, the two streams of Christianity have been a part of the baptismal water.

My involvement in the YM/YWCA opened my mind and heart to folk who follow Native Spirituality, Buddhist, Muslim, Hindu, Wicca, Baha'i, and Jewish faiths.

At my baptism, as the story goes, I squirmed and squealed, nearly causing Rev. Bland to drop me from his arms. Handing me back to my parents, he reportedly said: "She's an active one. Watch out!! And active I became.

I often went to this sanctuary, even if there wasn't Mission Band, Explorers, C.G.I.T. Youth Group, or Junior Choir happening. Often the sounds of the organist and/or choir practicing intrigued me. Using the church facilities, I learned to play the piano, since my family of origin did not have one. As my piano teacher had said: "the touch will be quite different from your Grammie King's pump organ."

As a young adult I continued to be active and began to "squirm and squeal" since, from my perspective, the faith community was not living out what it proclaimed. One example: a refugee family from Vietnam, sponsored by 3 denominations of the town, chose to attend The United Church.

Every week this 3 generational family of 7 people sat with the pew bible in hand and participated in learning and sharing with us. They showed a keen interest.

At that time, this congregation celebrated The Sacrament of Communion quarterly; and having only been with us for approximately 3 months it would be the first time for this family to be present for this meal. As I sat in the choir that morning, I clearly heard those familiar words: "This is the table of the Lord..... All are welcome....." The elders began to serve. From the choir I had a clear view. I squirmed. I witnessed the exclusion of this family. They were not given the opportunity to accept, or refuse. They were denied. They were passed by.

Following the service, the Session always gathered for a brief meeting. Knocking on the door I entered the room, asked to speak, and expressed my shame, that people had been excluded.

In 1982, following weeks, months, years of mentoring and encouragement from others, I began the discernment for and training to become a paid accountable minister in The United Church of Canada.

Yes, as the story goes, this child of God literally squealed and squirmed at her baptism; her initiation into the Christian faith. It was a way to communicate.

As an adult Christian there is, I believe, much that needs to be addressed in order to live out those baptismal vows; living into our ongoing call as followers of Jesus, thus living out his mission and ministry. I welcome others to join on this journey; praying that together, we build loving, welcoming, respecting community modelled on his examples.

Rev. Jeff de Jonge

Jeff was ordained by the Bay of Quinte Conference and settled to the Queensboro-Eldorado Pastoral Charge in 1985. Following six years of service there, his ministry continued at Wellington (15), Almonte (5), Lanark-Balderson (1), Boyd's-Franktown (3) and Pakenham (3). In addition to regular ministry demands in small rural settings, Jeff's early focus was Pastoral Care and Counseling as well as on other aspects of being in a 'helping' profession. Though it was always important to him to help develop credible faith that was authentic and pragmatic in our changing times, this took more prominence in his later years. With respect to the work of the wider Church, most of his contributions were within the Education & Students network; he also assisted with Conflict Management, Pastoral Relations and Administration.

Michele, Jeff's wife of 36 years, is retiring too, but from a career as a Public Health Nurse. They have two children, who have added partners to the family as well as two grandchildren. In addition to time with family and friends, Jeff & Michele anticipate more cycling, hiking, kayaking and travelling.

Memorials

Rev. Stanley Arthur Ralph 1933 – 2019

Stanley passed away peacefully at the Queensway Carleton Hospital on Monday, Feb 11, 2019, at the age of 85. Born in Bolens Village, Antigua on Sept. 30, 1933, he was the son of the late Samuel and Rebecca Ralph. Stanley was the beloved husband of 60 years to Agatha Emanuel Ralph and cherished father of Charmaine and the late Dalmain. He was the dear brother of Genevieve N. Ralph and the late Sylvester. He is remembered by many relatives and friends in Canada, England, the USA and the Caribbean.

Rev. Stanley Ralph studied theology at McGill University in Montreal as well as the Wesleyan Theological College in Barbados. Stanley and Agatha met at a youth meeting in St. John's, Antigua and were later married at Greys Farm Wesleyan Church in Grays Farm, Antigua where he served as pastor of Brittons Hill in the parish of St. Michael.

They immigrated to Montreal, on 1974 to begin Stanley's ministry in the United Church of Canada. His first pastoral charge was in Shefferville, Quebec; here he also served churches in Harrington Harbor, Chevy and Aylmer Sound. From there he moved to Arundel in the Laurentians, to the Rouge Valley Pastoral Charge. The next charge was at Quyon, also in Quebec. Stanley concluded his ministry on the Merrickville, Easton's Corners and Jasper Pastoral Charge before retiring to Ottawa in 2000. While in Merrickville, Stanley chaired the former Seaway Valley Presbytery and also served a term as president of Montreal and Ottawa Conference.

Stanley loved to sing and was not only an active member of the choir at City View in Ottawa but also the Ottawa Carleton Men's Choir.

After a lengthy illness, Stanley went home to the Lord he loved. He will be lovingly remembered for his abiding faith, his caring presence, his prayerful spirit and his joy in praising God, especially with the great old Wesleyan hymns.

An inspiring celebration of Stanley's life was held on Feb. 22 at City View United Church under the leadership of the Rev, Dr. Karen Boivin.

Those who knew him best are thankful for His friendship, love and prayers and his faithfulness to the Gospel or our Lord, Jesus Christ..

Rev. Garth Mundle
1935 – 2019

On Monday, January 28th, Garth journeyed from this life. He died in Ottawa after suffering a stroke.

Garth grew up in the village of Pugwash, Nova Scotia. He was the eldest of three children born to Stanley Mundle and Alice (Coulter) Mundle. Alice had been a teacher; Stan was in the oil delivery business, and later bought the property that is still the family farm. Garth and Eldon, two years apart, grew up together, and then much later, along came Carolyn. In his teen years Garth was active in the church youth group, and when the group would lead worship, Garth was often the preacher. For one or two summers, prior to the first Pugwash Peace Conference in 1957, he worked at Cyrus Eaton's Thinkers' Lodge.

Garth was a good student, and he took music lessons for several years. At Mount Allison University, he majored in psychology, with a minor in music, in voice. During this period, he made a decision to become a minister in the United Church of Canada, and after graduation attended Pine Hill Divinity Hall.

After ordination the church placed him in Saint John, New Brunswick, to develop a new congregation and also to work with an existing one. A tall order for a new graduate. At the same time, a deaconess arrived in Saint John. Dorothy Naylor had just graduated from the United Church Training School. United Church ministers at that time often gathered Sunday nights at one another's homes after evening services. It was inevitable that they would get to know one another. Two years later they were married. For fifty-seven years, through good times and bad, through loss of grand-daughter Tina and son David, they supported one another and enjoyed a rich life together. In later years when they worked as a team, congregants and friends would enjoy the way they could be honest with each other and how they "played off" one another. People in one congregation expressed the way they were together by naming them "Gar-thy."

In 1961, Garth and Dorothy moved to Massachusetts so that Garth could undertake graduate study in clinical psychology and counselling at Andover Newton Theological School, from which he received a Master of Sacred Theology degree, followed by a Doctor of Ministry degree. Their three children came to them while Garth was a student. Carol was born in 1962; David, born in 1961, and Jim, in 1962, came to them first as foster children, and were later adopted. The sixties in the United States were a very formative time for Garth, with major societal and cultural change, changes in the Roman Catholic Church after Vatican II, the Vietnam War, and the Civil Rights Movement. Adding to this vibrant mix of graduate studies and world events, Garth served congregations in Dunstable and Dracut. It was a challenging and creative experience for Garth to be both learning, and offering leadership in the church at such a time.

In 1971 before leaving the United States, the family, including the dog, undertook a self-supported sabbatical year, living and moving around the country in a 28-foot travel trailer for 12 months. There is a saying in the family that Dorothy makes the spitballs and Garth fires them. Such was the case about this adventure – it was Dorothy's idea. During that year, Garth had many jobs: with McDonalds, for a White House committee, as a Pinkerton security guard, and as a page at the Disneyland Hotel. It was a year that was rich in experiences, relationships and learning. At the end of the year, Trinity Church in Cobourg, Ontario, called him to be their minister, where he was to lead them through a period of change. The themes of innovation, disruption, growth and change would be hallmarks throughout his ministry.

A call to become the principal of St. Stephen's Theological College in Edmonton was the next step for Garth. In the history of St. Stephen's he is seen as a visionary. His time there was marked by vibrancy as he guided the college's development into an institution that served both lay students and ordered ministers. Some new programs were the Master of Theological Studies (MTS), global study tours, and two intakes for the Western Field-Based Program in Diaconal Ministry. After retirement from the college, Garth, often with Dorothy, worked in transition ministry for a decade, a ministry that they found to be intense, but very satisfying.

After almost 30 years in Alberta, in 2007 they moved to Ottawa to be closer to Carol and Jim and their families. He enjoyed frequent contact with his grandchildren Isabelle and André, and with Heather from afar. Garth continued to work for a few years, this time helping groups of congregations to explore and make decisions about new ways to be church together.

Whatever Garth was doing, he approached it with gusto. In Alberta, camping and skiing in the mountains brought him much pleasure. Summers always found him with the family at the back shore in Pugwash, where he loved swimming in the Northumberland Strait, and with Dorothy, hosted family and many friends over the years. Throughout his life he enjoyed and excelled at playing the host – mixing drinks, making hors d'oeuvres and then settling into the conversation and making many thought-provoking comments. Alberta friends remember calling him from the hot tub: “Garthon!” (Garçon). He enlivened many parties with performances of the hop polka, which he had learned in the dance halls of northern Nova Scotia. He cherished all of his travels – and there were many – as a way of connecting with the world beyond him. Many people have spoken of changed minds and hearts because of international tours led by Garth, through St. Stephen's College or the Centre for Christian Studies. Anyone who talked with him recently knows that the principles of quantum theory were never far from his mind. Whether invited to speak or not, Garth was never lost for words. Dorothy used to say there was no space between his brain and his mouth. And when it came to social justice, his rants could rival those of Rick Mercer.

In the many ways Garth expressed his faith he was always passionate about challenging the status quo and applying the gospel to contemporary issues. Many were inspired and stimulated by his vision. He was a large personality but was also able to attend to and be of service to others when they needed help – whether it was a need for conversation, a ride or someone to clean and dust - no task was beneath him, nor was he ever too busy to lend a hand. Family and friends are shocked and saddened by his passing, but are immensely grateful for having had him in their lives.

Mourning his passing are his wife Dorothy Naylor; son Jim (Sandra) and daughter Carol (Jean); grandchildren Heather, Isabelle and André; great-grandchild Bella; brother Eldon (Janice) and sister Carolyn Cameron; the extended Mundle family; the Naylor family; and a large network of friends.

On February 16th, family, friends, and colleagues from across the country gathered to celebrate the life of Garth. The service reflected Garth's energetic and theological willingness to colour outside the lines as in song, word, stories, and fiddle music, Garth's spirited life was honoured. The service was filled with laughter and tears as the depth of Garth's impact on our church and our world was celebrated.

The minutes of the Executive meeting held on September 4, 2018 were approved by consensus.

Pastoral Charge Commission

Will reported that each student in UVP now has a Circle of Accompaniment and a supervisory lay team in place. Catherine asked Will to consider who from UVP would make a suitable member of the LLWL Committee of EOOR.

Administration Commission

Gary reported that there are two pending real estate transactions in the Presbytery – at Calvin Pembroke and Grace St. Andrews Arnprior (“GSA”). The Commission will consider GSA’s proposal at its next meeting scheduled for November 6, 2018. Calvin is waiting for the lease agreement and will send to us when received and reviewed. We hope that these transactions can be completed before year-end, but if not, that the UVP policy of not requiring a percentage of proceeds to be paid to a specified body is grandfathered under EOOR.

Shared Ministry Commission

Lee and Kevin reported that the next meeting of this Commission would take place immediately after the Executive meeting. As for past activities, we were referred to their Minutes posted on the website.

Next Meeting

Our last meeting as Upper Valley Presbytery will be held at St. Andrews in Pakenham on November 20. This is planned as a celebration with cake, ice cream and perhaps balloons. We choose the stuffed chicken breast option from the 4 given to us by the St. Andrews UCW and UVP will pay for the meal – no charge for attendees. Catherine will ask for positive RSVP's so we can give numbers to the caterers by November 9. We will also invite Linda McLaren, our first Treasurer and the current LLWLs.

Staff Reports

Executive Minister

In the spring of 2018, each presbytery was asked by the General Secretary to name a representative to form a regional transition commission. Given that only four presbyteries were involved in this process, the decision was made to have two representatives per presbytery and Conferences were also invited to name a president or past president to be on the commission. The Indigenous Ministries Council also named a representative.

The transition commission was formed using those named as representatives; Rev. Elaine Beattie, Rev. Teresa Burnett-Cole, Joanne Fletcher, Catherine Grant, Bronwen Harman, Rev. Kimberly Heath, Phyllis MacRae, Rev. Blair Paterson, Rev. Don Stiles, Linda Suddaby, and Rev. Carla Van Delen.

The commissions were voted into existence at the General Council 43 in Oshawa in July 2018, but the working group had already begun in late May, on the assumption that all would pass.

We met as a Transition Commission 10 times between June 13th and December 4th, almost all of which were for a full day in person. Hours of volunteer time was spent building relationships, hearing stories of different areas, sharing hopes, passions and concerns, and then discerning how to move forward. Karen McLean, former secretary of Four Winds Presbytery helped us for the first six months as the Minute-taker.

We identified a Vision of the Commission by which we evaluate progress based on:

- Supporting and enhancing the life of Communities of Faith where ministry takes place
- Nurturing Social Justice and Outreach programs
- Building Communications

We had presentations or consultations and support from General Council staff; David Allen on many things, David Armour and Erik Matheson on budgeting and the financial packages being offered for technology and equipment, Eric Hebert-Daly on the Covenant agreement with La Table des ministres en français, and with Karen Valley and Whit Strong on the difference between Office of Vocation and the new pastoral relations process.

In July we selected Don Stiles to be the Chair, and in August after a day with presbytery treasurers, we asked Brian Cornelius, with his financial experience, to be initial Treasurer as we worked on finding ways to work with the numbers.

We created our budget based upon two hypothetical pots of money to use; $325,000 for governance and services (administration) and $289,000 for mission and ministry. Some of the ministry, specifically for youth work, is being supplemented by the Scrivens-Baillie Funds from the former Ottawa Presbytery. We anticipated that there would also be some residual amounts coming from the various presbyteries after the year wrapped up. In budget planning, we were intentional that our functioning budget would not be based upon those extras, some of which are designated for Transitional Mission Strategy ideas. We were also not prepared to add to the assessments.

We had timelines and deadlines imposed at intervals, decisions that had to be made so that ministry could continue, such as Mission Support granting, and budget planning including evaluating needs for office space and staffing.

Through the autumn, we worked on staffing needs, job descriptions, policies and governance structures. “Expressions of Interest” forms were circulated to find out how the wider church wanted to be involved. We solicited possible names for the new regional council and eventually, through a voting and elimination process, we chose our new name, Eastern Ontario Outaouais.

Staff positions were advertised widely, interviews conducted, and decisions were made to have staff in place to start the year.

January 1, 2019 arrived with us not feeling really ready to be the new Executive, but knowing that we had worked steadily, had made good progress and were excited to be leading the way.

There have been six meetings in 2019, and the focus has been on establishing the governance structure and having working policies in place. Many of these policies are compilations of former presbytery and Conference policies, and will help hold all of us accountable to the ethical standards of practice of the wider church.

Liaisons have been trained to engage in the new pastoral relations process, as we begin to use the new HUB system.

One of the challenges has been addressing requests for information or assistance before a structure was in place with individuals named as responsible to make such decisions.

Some initial Leadership Teams have been formed (to be added to at the Inaugural meeting through Nominations) to address emerging issues, particularly around finances, youth and young adult ministry and pastoral relations.

Meeting dates were set for several months and Joel Miller took over the taking of Minutes for the Executive with all staff voted as corresponding members and to receive Minutes.

An Open House at the RC office space at Zion-Memorial United Church in Carleton Place was held on Saturday, March 2nd with 120 participants. The day included worship, meeting staff and the Executive, gathering for small ‘interest’ discussions and of course, delicious food.

The staff of Regional Councils 11, 12 & 13 as well as shared staff and General Council staff had a two-day retreat in early March to do relationship building and find ways to share resources, working together within their respective and across the 3 regional councils.

Communication has been forefront in our efforts to be transparent and keep people informed.

While getting a working website was a huge challenge, a weekly Friday newsletter was created to help people be informed, to save dates and to begin the process of gathering as local clusters and thematic networks. Our beautiful website has been functioning since early May.

We have also had various teams working on preparing for the Inaugural meeting of the new Regional Council. We will gather at the arena in Smiths Falls and Trinity United Church from June 7 to June 9.

During the meeting, the Executive will be presenting our Governance Document that is a collection of months of work. Together, we will be Celebrating Ministries and a Team will be bringing nominations of Leadership Teams so that more of you can begin to actively live into our new reality. We will also discuss how and when to meet in the future.

Thank you for this challenging and yet life-giving opportunity to serve the church and help us transform together. I am deeply appreciative of the Transition Commission/Executive, the staff and dedicated volunteers who have already committed many hours to achieve so much. – Respectfully submitted, Rosemary Lambie (Rev.), Executive Minister.

Program Assistant to the Executive Minister

From the time the seeds were planted during the comprehensive review, to these Inaugural Regional Council meetings, I have had the opportunity of witnessing and being part of the United Church of Canada's restructuring. From the vantage point of a Conference Administrator, and now, a Program Assistant to the Executive Minister, I have taken part in the administrative process that has been necessary for implementing the changes which now shape the new governance models of these Regional Councils.

I am thankful for the talents and gifts that shape the staff of the Regional Councils, and I know I will continue to benefit from each as we grow in our respective roles to best serve within the United Church of Canada.

Tasks of the Program Assistant to the Executive Minister within each of the Regional Councils include:

Executive Minister Support: Provides daily, ongoing administrative support to the Executive Minister including, hospitality, the flow of communication, proactively providing appropriate back-up material to assist the Executive Minister and correspondence as required.

Executive: Recording Secretary for each of the Regional Council Executive meetings (Executive) minutes are available on the Regional Council websites or through me).

Marriage Licenses & Voluntary Associate Minister: Processing marriage license application forms and annually updating Quebec and Ontario Marriage license lists (application forms are available on the website or through me).

Keeping a record of all Voluntary Associate Ministers, which is updated annually (retired Ministers or Ministers not in a call or appointment must be a Voluntary Associate Minister in order to apply for a temporary marriage license).

(Please see the Authorization to Perform Marriage and Voluntary Associate Minister (VAM) Policy in your Regional Council's Governance handbook for more information).

General Meeting: Recording Secretary at each of the Regional Council General meetings. Preparing annual report books (General meeting minutes and report books are available on the Regional Council websites or through me).

Respectfully submitted,

Joel Miller
Program Assistant to Executive Minister

Pastoral Relations Minister

As we are all aware, the shift into our new Regional Council structure of governance has been filled with excitement as well as its fair share of challenges. Not only have we made a shift to a new governance model, but we have also welcomed new names and faces into our church circle. While I am very familiar with the people and Communities of Faith in the eastern half of the Eastern Ontario Outaouais Regional Council, I am enjoying getting to know those of you in our western half.

Since January 1st, as the Regional Minister for Pastoral Relations, I have been engaged with Ministry Personnel, Community of Faith Councils, Ministry & Personnel Committees, and Lay Licenced Worship Leaders in an effort to strengthen the many and varied ministries that are within our bounds. I have to say that, in these first few months, much of my time has been focussed on pastoral relations issues – largely ensuring that pastoral charges have appropriate coverage in the absence of called or appointed Ministry Personnel, as well as linking our Pastoral Relations Liaisons to the many pastoral charges that are in the midst of determining their ministry needs for the future. I have also spent a significant amount of time meeting with individual Ministry Personnel as they assess their individual ministries.

Perhaps the most important events, in a governance sense, were the creation of the Pastoral Relations Commission and the LLWL Committee. While still in their fledgling days, I have confidence in those lay and ministry folks who have offered their time and talent in this area. I would be remiss if I did not offer a word of thanks to those who make up our team of Pastoral Relations Liaisons... those folks who volunteer their time to support the pastoral relations work in EOORC.

Yet my work entails far more than just coordinating and supporting pastoral relations matters. My responsibilities include, but are not limited to:

- Providing support to Communities of Faith as they live out their ministry, including Intentional Interim Ministry, cooperative arrangements, innovative ministries, Ecumenical Shared Ministry, lay leadership, amalgamation, disbanding, and closure
- Support to Communities of Faith without regularly called or appointed ministry personnel
- Training and accreditation of Lay Licenced Worship Leaders and Sacraments Elders.
- Support Communities of Faith with regards to training M&P Committees and Councils, as well as preventative dispute resolution
- Support to Communities of Faith and Ministry Personnel in early interventions in pastoral conflict and J8 (congregational) Reviews
- Support other work that will help the life of Communities of Faith with respect to their pastoral relationship
- Support clustering of Communities of Faith as needed with respect to oversight, pastoral relations, M&P work, and other related areas
- Foster support and collegiality for ministry personnel, such as facilitating local gatherings of ministry personnel
- Assist the Office of Vocation with following up directed programs for ministry personnel
- Liaise with the Office of Vocation regarding accreditation and issues of Good Standing

Ministry Supporting Communities of Faith, Clusters and Networks

During the four months since inception of the Ministry Supporting Communities of Faith, Clusters and Networks (Jan-April 2019), the primary emphasis has been to identify what is happening within the Regional Council and establish connections with key resources to support and implement the work of this ministry as it takes shape. This has included the following activities:

- in-person or telephone meetings with all members of the EOORC Executive and staff
- meetings or phone conversations with key people in each of the four founding Presbyteries
- liaison with staff and consultants with the EDGE Network for Ministry Development
- liaison with staff members in several other Regional Councils across the country to establish a wider network for information sharing and mutual support
- correspondence with General Council Office personnel about priorities for cluster and network development
- attending worship services and program activities at numerous congregations within EOORC
- establishing a monthly staff meeting with EOORC Staff members (Minister of Pastoral Relations, and Minister of Youth and Young Adults)
- interaction with groups and individuals within EOORC exploring new ways of doing ministry (The Journey; street chaplaincy)
- Facilitation of group dialogue at various meetings and gatherings within EOORC and beyond

Communities of Faith: The focus of support for Communities of Faith emphasises encouraging and equipping clusters and networks (as below). Further support for Communities of Faith includes encouraging other program initiatives to develop a more region-wide presence. Two primary areas of interest to date have been to help support the establishment of an EOORC-wide Vision/Mission Strategy Team and hospital-based Chaplaincy Ministry.

Clusters: As per The Manual (2019) clusters are to “provide community and support for Communities of Faith and their leaders with a focus on worship, mission, learning, collegiality and strategic planning.” Based on extensive conversations within EOORC and beyond there are four areas where clusters are already established or in a formative stage: 1) congregational clusters (a number of congregations coming together to share resources and personnel, e.g., Genesis, RUM, Grace); 2) clergy peer support clusters and other forms of collegial community-building; 3) spiritual development/faith formation clusters (e.g., Scripture Circle; Writing Spiritual Memoir ; and 4) Communities of practice clusters (e.g., DLMs, Music Directors, LLWL’s, Education Supervisors and Mentors, Ministry Candidates).

Networks: As per The Manual (2019) the goal of networks is to “link people working on specific issues.” There are a number of issues that have generated pre-existing networks within the Region along with several other areas of interest where networks are still at an emergent or developmental stage. These areas include but are not limited to Healing Pathways, Faith and Arts (music, writing, and other arts practices), Social Justice, Right Relations, Ministries in French (le Table), Camping/Outdoor Ministries, Forest Church, United Church Women (UCW), Network of Affirming Churches, Campus Chaplaincy, Rural Ministry, Refugee Sponsorship, UNJPPI, Non-traditional Communities of Faith (communities without a church and/or clergy personnel) and Ecumenical and Interfaith Relations.

The focus of continuing work in all these areas over the next four months emphasizes the further consolidation and development of these and other networks and clusters following the launch of the EOORC website and the Inaugural Meeting. Additional communications strategies are also being explored.

Ministry for Youth and Young Adults (YAYA)

Most can recall a time when Sunday schools and pews were full and youth groups brimming with teens. With the visual presence of youth and young adults dwindling from Sunday worship it can feel like the future of the church is uncertain. Youth and Young Adult Ministry is often seen as a way to revitalize churches, to bring in families, increase energy, grow new life and fix problems such as low attendance, financial strain and congregational burn-out. In many ways it can be but it is not a one size fits all solution, and understanding what each church and community of faith is being called to do in relation to this ministry is vital. At the heart of each church and community of faith is the longing for community and connection to each other through Christ. And while Youth and Young Adult Ministries can not fix all of the challenges many churches have, it can, when the right seeds are planted and carefully tended, grow and thrive with God.

In March the EOOR Youth and Young Adult Committee (Chair, Rev. David Sherwin) was formed with representatives from some of Region 12's former Presbyteries. The Committee identified youth mental health, faith formation, Regional/worship leadership, belonging and diversity as areas of focus along with supporting the already existing YAYA Ministries. These are;

Worshiplude – Winterlude weekend, first Saturday in February. This year over 250 youth and leaders shared worship with Moderator Rev. Richard Bott at Rideau Park United Church, Ottawa.

Camp Lau-Ren, Golden Lake Camp, Rideau Hill Camp & Camp Awesome – Residential and Day camps throughout the region, hiring and training of camp staff and leading camp activities

Open/Pause Table – Campus-based ecumenical partnership ministries offering radical hospitality to all students through hot meals and snack tables at uOttawa and Carleton University

RendezVous2020 – Calgary, Alberta 2020

United Youth at the EOOR Inaugural Mtg. – Youth Programing at the Inaugural meeting to gather and build participation and input for future youth events.

The YAYA Committee also provides support to regional churches continuing to connect with youth and young adults through local programs and events

The goals of the Ministry for Youth and Young Adults in the inaugural year of Region 12 is to ensure all existing YAYA Ministries continue, connect with youth and build a Regional 12 Youth Group, engage with local churches to learn what they are doing, look for new ministry opportunities and identify existing ministries for growth potential. I look forward to working with all of the churches and communities of faith in the Eastern Ontario Outaouais Regional Council 12 to help discern your youth and young adult ministry and help grow what God is planting.

Dana Ducette,
Minister, Youth and Young Adults

Communications and Administration Assistant

I began in this role on January 1, 2019, at the same time the United Church of Canada introduced the new structure and organization. As such, the role of Communications and Administration Assistant was a new one and therefore little was available on which to base it. In many ways, this became an excellent opportunity to create something new, much like the EOORC itself was doing.

Since I had a sense that EOORC members were experiencing a lack of information and a real hunger for knowledge for things happening across the region, I began by connecting with leaders of the former four presbyteries and determined that the best way to reach out to the entire region was through a weekly newsletter. Although an official EOORC Website was the ultimate goal, and seen as the best means of communicating, there wasn't one available and it quickly became apparent that the website would have to be developed, a process that would take at least two months. Thus, a weekly newsletter was created.

The first issue of EOORC News This Week was released on Friday, January 25, 2019, and every Friday since then one has been delivered. Currently there are just over 500 subscribers. Special thanks to volunteer, Chris Morgan, for proofreading every issue for me each Thursday afternoon.

The EOORC website has been developed, with a release date of May 1, 2019, in time for the reports that need to be made available to those attending the EOORC Inaugural Meeting in Smiths Falls on June 7-9, 2019. The website is a work in progress, made functional for the inaugural meeting, but there is still work to be done on it to meet all the needs of EOORC members.

Registration for the EOORC Inaugural Meeting is up and running on a Google Drive file. Special thanks to volunteer and tech-savvy Gary McKay for all his hard work in developing the online registration form. Thanks also to Brian Cornelius who agreed to collect the money sent by mail from attendees.

I have formed a small Communications Committee, which is not an official committee of the EOORC, but has been extremely helpful to me. Members are Gary McKay, David Patterson, JoAnne Fletcher, Chris Morgan, and Karen McLean. We meet once a month.

My plans for the next six months include improving the website, developing a better way to list EOORC events, visiting some of the Communities of Faith in the EOORC and writing profiles on them, and continuing to serve the EOORC with clear communications.

Thank you to everyone in the EOORC who have supported and encouraged me in my new role.

Anita Jansman

Archives

In Region 12, the storage location and management of those records varies depending on the location of the source of those records. For those communities of faith located in the former Ottawa Presbytery (Ontario portion) and Seaway Valley; the records would be held at the City of Ottawa Archives, in Ottawa. Some of the communities in Quebec will be held in Montreal and some in Gatineau. Records origination from former Bay of Quinte Presbyteries are currently still at the Central Archives in Toronto.

A large portion of the work at the City of Ottawa Archives location was directed to the digitization of the finding aids for the records stored there. This involved considerable data entry and then validation of contents of the storage containers. By the end of the year, this work was 90% complete. The goal is to have a searchable index available on the Region's website in early 2019

During the year, the City staff requested that the Conference remove the backlog of some 25 boxes of records that had been held in quarantine for a number of years, and have them remediated (mostly removal of mould and pests). This work was contracted out and completed by year's end. This highlights the need to have records stored in proper locations until they can be transferred to the Archives.

Another backlog of unprocessed records was dealt with so that there remains very little that is not fully entered into the management system. These two situations were affecting the ability to accept new documents into the Archives.

By the end of the year, we had almost reached capacity of the space allotted at the City Archives for UCC material. We have negotiated 40% additional space in city vaults to be made available over the next five years. Careful management of material accepted into the Archives will be necessary to conform to the allowable space.

There will be a national consultation of Archivists to be held in June which will focus on the future management of Archives across Canada.

Archivist, Region 12

Treasurer's Report

I am honoured to be the first Treasurer of the Eastern Ontario Outaouais Regional Council and to work with the Finance Committee of the Region.

Attached to this report are Financial Statements that includes the income and expenses to the end of April. The Finance Committee draws your attention to the following five topics. We also welcome any questions on the details included in the financial statements.

Welcome suggestions for proposed Financial Statements:

First, the attached Financial Statements is still in a proposed format that has been reviewed by the Finance Committee. The Finance Committee welcomes any suggestions on improvements as well as required clarifications. Our goal is to have a transparent report for the Council.

Explanation of Income Sources

Second, within the new structure of the United Church, Regional Councils are funded from three sources.

- a. General Council Assessment Grant: The General Council collects assessments from Communities of Faith which are used for funding the governance of both the General and Regional Councils. All sixteen regional councils receive a grant of $325,000 and in addition EOORC receives $33,500 as a grant for the Executive Minister and Executive Assistant. The Regional Council has full discretion over the use of these funds.
- b. General Council Mission & Service Grant: Within the budget of General Council, Mission & Service dollars are designated for Regional Mission and Ministry. The Regional Council has full discretion over how to use these funds as long as the expenditures is related to mission and ministry. Hence, it is important that expenses are tracked to indicate how Mission & Service dollars are spent.
- c. Regional Council Resources: Funds that Regional Councils have historically accumulated are still available for the use of Regional Councils. Presently, EOORC has five such income resources with investments that presently total almost $3.5 million. These funds are:
 - i) EOORC Fund is available to support the life and work of the Regional Council. All undesignated funds received from Presbyteries/Conferences were deposited into this Fund.
 - ii) Mission Strategy fund provides grants to ministries within the Region and 4% of the value of the investments at the end of the year provides the budget for the upcoming year.
 - iii) McKendry Fund is a capital fund that has been loaned to Orleans United Church and the annual interest supports the life and work of the Regional Council.
 - iv) While tracked separately, both the W.H. (Bill) Scrivens and James Elwood Baillie Youth funds provide money for supporting the Youth and Young Adult Minister position and provide grants for youth ministry. This is on a 50/50 basis and 4% of the value of the investments at the end of the year provides the budget for the upcoming year.

In addition, there is a Church Extension Committee which is incorporated separately from EOORC. The Church Extension has nearly $4.25 million in investments. Hence, EOORC is blessed with $7.75 million to support the life and work of the Regional Council.

Emerging Budget

Third, given that this is the first year of the Regional Council, we have a projected budget but anticipate that the budget will have to adjust as we discover actual costs. To date, projections have been quite close.

Furthermore, we are spending less this year as we are still forming clusters and committee which have yet to have expenses related to their work.

There is a commitment to having a balanced budget. The Finance Committee determined to designate all monies received from Presbyteries and Conferences to “funds” and therefore, begin our life together with no unrestricted reserves.

Investments

Fourth, the Finance Committee made the decision to invest with Fiera Capital Investments along with the United Church of Canada and the United Church foundation. This is a pooled fund to maximize investment returns and reduce investment costs.

Restricted Ministry Accounts

Fifth, the Finance Committee agreed to maintain restricted ministry accounts to provide support to particular ministries that have existed in the varying presbyteries and Conferences. These will be reviewed on an annual basis.

In conclusion, the Finance Committee welcome any questions and suggestion that you have. The members of the Committee are Rosemary Lambie, Bruce Jackson, Margaret Scott, Joe Smarkala, and Ev Zytveld.

Respectively submitted,
Brian Cornelius (Treasurer)

Atlantic School of Theology

You might already know about us: we are a small ecumenical university in Halifax, NS, founded in 1971 when three theological schools merged together: Pine Hill (United Church of Canada); King's College (Anglican); and Holy Heart (Roman Catholic). We continue our close relationship with the United Church, and two-thirds of our degree students are United Church members. People from across Canada (every province) study with us.

In 2018-19, we continued to have a 'steady' enrolment pattern with 156 students. We offer the M.Div. (residential) degree; M.Div. (summer distance) degree; M.A. (jointly with Saint Mary's University); Diploma in Youth Ministry; Diploma in Theological Studies; and Diploma in the New Evangelization (a Roman Catholic initiative). As a full-integrated ecumenical theological university, we delight in the growth and graces we enjoy through constant contact and shared learning with peers from other Christian traditions. United Church of Canada students (from any Region) who are preparing for ministry enjoy a full tuition bursary for all years.

Continuing Education is an important aspect of what we do. This past year we offered a unique Social Enterprise Symposium and an online Feminist Spirituality course, for example. An increasing number of ministers are taking our M.A. degree (online or on campus) to further their learning.

A few campus renovations have been taking place, including the construction of Halifax Hospice on our property. We're happy to get to know this new neighbour and partner as they fulfill their important mission.

AST was a co-founder of the Canadian Centre for Ethics in Public Affairs, and has been involved for many years with its work. This year, in response to CCEPA's desire for increased autonomy, AST withdrew from the governance aspect of CCEPA, and CCEPA moved off our campus. We will remain active in their programming.

Like everyone associated with the United Church, we are adjusting to the new polity and structures that have been approved—for example, we have adapted the terms of reference for appointments to our Senate, and we are learning how best to relate to the new Candidacy Boards. If you have advice or suggestions for us, please get in touch any time. Our central aim is to serve the church, and we deeply value the partnership we share with you.

Respectfully,
Rev. Dr. Rob Fennell
Academic Dean

Our Affirmation of Faith

We are not alone,
We live in God's world.
We believe in God :
who has created and is creating,
who has come in Jesus,
the Word made flesh,
to reconcile and make new who works in us and others
by the Spirit.
We trust in God.
We are called to be the Church to celebrate God's presence to live with respect in Creation to love and serve others,
to seek justice and resist evil,
to proclaim Jesus, crucified and risen,
our judge and our hope.
In life, in death, in life beyond death,
God is with us.
We are not alone.
Thanks be to God.
