

Eastern Ontario Outaouais Regional UCW
STUDENT GIFT PROGRAM

The Eastern Ontario Outaouais Regional UCW's Student Gift Program was created to give encouragement and financial support to candidates in their studies towards Ordination / Commissioning into ministry with the Eastern Ontario Outaouais Region Council and the United Church of Canada. Funding for this gift comes from donations made by United Church Women in our region. These gifts are given annually, in equal shares, up to the amount of $1,500.00 per person to all of the eligible applicants.

Who can apply?

Students who are currently enrolled in studies and are working with the Office of Vocation in discernment, training and accreditation for Ministry Personnel. Theological education does not need to take place within Eastern Ontario Outaouais Region.

What kinds of education does this gift support?

Eligible candidates who are enrolled in formal theological education at a centre for Christian studies program or similar programs towards a Masters of Divinity, Diaconal Ministry or Lay Ministry.

How much does this gift provide?

The gift amount varies annually, based on the donations received each year. All eligible applicants receive an equal share of the funds up to $1,500.00 per person per year.

Students may apply for the gift each year that they fit the criteria.

Applications must be received by October 15.
