FOLLOW-UPS FROM LIAISONS AND PCSs:

1) Melville, Eganville

Ina Bromley reported there is an upcoming meeting at Eganville. Margie Patterson (DLM-R) is now attending Eganville U.C. and has led Sunday services from time to time. She is willing to be an alternate PCS if needed.

MOTION 2023-102 (B. Paterson/L. Suddaby) “That the EOORC PR Commission, in the absence of called/appointed ministry personnel, names Margie Patterson, EOORC member, as an alternate Pastoral Charge Supervisor to the Melville, Eganville Pastoral Charge.” CARRIED

[Abstaining: Ina Bromley]

2) Lanark & Central Lanark P.C.s

Wayne Harris reported Lanark and Central Lanark Pastoral Charges are close to requesting an appointment. Lanark Board meets Sept. 24th and Central Lanark on the 28th to discuss and vote.

OTHER BUSINESS:

1) Liaisons' Compensation:

Whit had nothing further to report. This will be removed from the agendas for the time being.

2) PR Commission to grant sacramental privileges

Whit has asked that this be on the agenda for the September meeting of the Executive.

3) Proposed Ordination Policy

Whit has asked that this item also be on the agenda for the September meeting of the Executive.

4) Exit Interviews

Various methods have been used by the former Presbyteries. After discussion, it was decided Whit should approach a minister who is leaving a pastoral charge as soon as possible after receiving notice. It is best to do this as early as possible so that suggestions are available to be used in the Profile as well as the Search process.

Ministers will be offered the opportunity to participate in an exit interview and, if amenable, will be given the choice of in-person, Zoom or a written response to a few questions.

5) Setting Our Sights

There are a number of gatherings during the next few weeks – some via Zoom and others in-person. The schedules are on the EOORC website. Everyone was encouraged to try to participate if at all possible.

6) Protocols With Respect to the Deaths of Ministers and/or their spouses

The death of a minister and/or his/her spouse or significant other is devastating for all. Whit has been attempting to attend as many funerals in-person as he is able to but circumstances sometimes make this impossible. He has also attempted to write a note of condolence on the Funeral home webpage on behalf of EOORC. We should make every effort to ensure no one is overlooked. Discussion ensued as to how best to do this.

MOTION 2023-103 (B. Paterson/E. McIntyre) “The EOORC PR Commission recommends that, upon notification of the death of a clergy member and/or spouse, the Executive makes a donation to M&S in their memory, and notifies the family of same.” CARRIED

7) Time of PRC and Executive Meetings

Whit reported that the Executive wishes to continue to meet on the second Thursday of the month. This is problematic since the PRC meets on the second Tuesday of each month, often leaving the scribe very little time to write up the minutes and get them to the Executive in time for their meeting. The Executive has asked for Team minutes 7-10 days in advance of their meeting to give members adequate time to read everything and be prepared for discussions and decisions.

PRC members all agreed to change our meetings to the third Tuesday of each month effective October 17th.

8) VAMs

Whit reported there has been some difficulty receiving paperwork from our Voluntary Associate Ministers (VAMs). Some has gone astray leaving those folks not properly approved. It was suggested VAMs continue to send their completed annual request forms to their Boards/Councils for approval. The secretaries will send the approved forms to Whit who will bring them to the PRC for final approval. Whit will submit a final list in March for the upcoming pastoral year.

9) Covenanting Services

Under the Regional system, the organization of Covenanting services is now the responsibility of the Pastoral Charge. The Region is only involved in a couple of lines at the end of the liturgy. Under the former Presbytery structure, this was often seen as a time for the wider church community to gather and offer its support to the local church and its new minister. Whit has heard from his colleagues across the country that there is often now more support from ministers in other denominations locally.

We need to encourage EOORC members to make the effort to attend these special services. Perhaps Pastoral Charges can also be encouraged to consider the timing of their services. Most are now being held during Sunday morning worship which precludes ministers and other people otherwise involved in their home churches from attending.

10) Retired Ministers

Who looks after retirees in our Region now or has this “dropped through the cracks”? At this point, they are not under any Team’s umbrella. Until recently, it has been difficult to impossible to get a list of retired people because of privacy concerns. Whit now has a list but it is very much out-of-date. Blair Paterson and Linda Suddaby offered to take on this project to develop a comprehensive list of our retirees and then to make an effort to contact each on a regular basis.

LAST WORD: None

Next meeting – Tuesday, October 17, 2023 1:00-3:00 p.m. via Zoom.

CLOSING: Blair led us in a closing prayer. The business listed on the agenda being completed, Wayne declared the meeting closed at 2:22 p.m.
