Rev. Blair shared a reflective response to God's call in Isaiah 58:12, and stressed what it means for the Church to be courageous communities. Michael pondered "Your people will rebuild the ancient ruin, and will raise up the age-old foundations; you will be called Repairer of Broken Walls, Restorer of Streets with Dwellings." Michael encouraged all to move outside the walls of the Church, outside of comfort zones and concerns about church's needs, and to learn the struggles and needs of its neighbors in the community, and to respond by being authentic Christians, in our world, as an extension of God's love. Michael shared examples of Churches where this is happening, as examples and encouragements, for being courageous community

Living Call Statement

The Eastern Ontario Outaouais Regional Council seeks to support and strengthen the ministries of its Communities of Faith as well as the ministry of all God's people, staff and lay leadership within those communities.

As we seek to carry out this ministry, we will be intentional about how we fully include all in Christ's love and service. This means that in our work as a Regional Council we will actively seek equity for, and participation from, the full diversity of God's Creation; seeking racial justice, identifying and undermining colonialism, celebrating all sexual orientations, gender identities and expressions, valuing linguistic and cultural diversity, seeking to include all who face challenges with their mental and physical health or social and economic circumstances.

We will carry out our ministry with people in all seasons of life as we honour our relationship with Indigenous Peoples and nurture ecological justice. We will work to effectively and respectfully communicate with one another so that no one is left behind. CARRIED

Centering Prayer –

Rev. Takouhi Demirdjian-Petro, Grace United Church in Gananoque, shared a homily on learning to dance with God, even in the dark places. Here below is an extract of her prayer:

Today, I want to reiterate the Truth of what Michael shared, Having Hope doesn't mean everything is honky dory, but having hope means that through the spirit of God we envision and see the end result of God's persistent, and provisional Love, no matter what our circumstances are.

God journeys with us and is closer to us than the breath we breathe....and calls us to offer that same hope we need to offer to others...with love, dignity, respect and freedom to all. As the very first Armenian Woman Ordained minister through the United Church of Canada on May 28, 2011, which also marked the 93 anniversary of Armenian independence day of 1918; I want to share a word from the Wisdom of my ancestors- in Armenian we say, always, lift others up, because as you lift others up you are lifted up with them automatically.

Church, We are discussing so many topics this weekend and I know one of the remits is about establishing National indigenous organization... I am not part of the committee of any sort, I am just a descendant of an Armenian Genocide survivor, who arrived in Canada in 1986, as a refugee....whenever I think of this remit, the Spirit keeps on whispering, let my people go... Beloved this Sunday is the birthday of the Church, Pentecost Sunday... however we all know that Jesus had already given the Spirit to his disciples, promised the paraclete long before Pentecost, however it was courage that made this living, fiery, Spirit evident on Pentecost. This afternoon I offer you these words as Centering prayer from an author, artist, and Poet, Jan Richardson...

May this blessing comfort and challenge you to be courageous individuals and communities, despite your fears...

if you feel comfortable enough, you are invited to close your eyes and repeat in your heart,

Come Spirit come...

Come Spirit come...

This Grace That Scorches Us
A Blessing for Pentecost Day

Here's one thing
you must understand
about this blessing:
it is not
for you alone.

It is stubborn
about this.
Do not even try
to lay hold of it
if you are by yourself,
thinking you can carry it
on your own.

To bear this blessing,
you must first take yourself
to a place where everyone
does not look like you
or think like you,
a place where they do not believe precisely as you believe,
where their thoughts
and ideas and gestures
are not exact echoes
of your own.

Bring your sorrow.
Bring your grief.
Bring your fear.
Bring your weariness,
your pain,
your disgust at how broken
the world is,
how fractured,
how fragmented
by its fighting,
its wars,
its hungers,
its penchant for power,
its ceaseless repetition
of the history it refuses
to rise above.

I will not tell you
this blessing will fix all that.

But in the place
where you have gathered,
wait.
Watch.
Listen.
Lay aside your inability
to be surprised,
your resistance to what you
do not understand.
See then whether this blessing
turns to flame on your tongue,
sets you to speaking
what you cannot fathom

or opens your ear
to a language
beyond your imagining
that comes as a knowing
in your bones,
a clarity
in your heart
that tells you

this is the reason
we were made:
for this ache
that finally opens us,

for this struggle,
this grace
that scorches us
toward one another
and into
the blazing day.

(Educational) Remit 1: Establishing an Autonomous National Indigenous Organization

Rev. Dr. Teresa Burnett-Cole shared her presentation about Remit 1: Establishing an Autonomous National Indigenous Organization (video presentation online: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=W6hqJTB7-SM&t=44s>). The presentation provided the motivation for this remit, and the possible outcome. Teresa emphasized that a pastoral charge that does not vote, it will be recorded as a no vote. Therefore, it is important that every pastoral charge votes.

2. It was specified that a positive decision also includes the cost for an annual membership fee of $1,000.00 a year.

(Educational) Remit 1: Establishing an Autonomous National Indigenous Organization

It was agreed by consensus that, because the meeting was ahead of schedule, the court could begin discussing Remit 1: Establishing an Autonomous National Indigenous Organization at 11:10 AM instead of 11:30 AM. At this time, Rev. Takouhi-Demirdjian-Petro presented the following (Except) – which was also provided to table groups:

Remit process

Both Regional Councils AND the governing bodies (councils or boards) of pastoral charges vote on remits.

A majority must be obtained for each group (Regional Councils and Pastoral Charges).

A vote by members of the Regional Council does not indicate a congregation's support. These are two different things.

Failure to vote by the end of March 2024 is the equivalent of a 'no' vote. The 'yes' votes must exceed 50% of pastoral charges and 50% of regional councils.

Only 'yes' and 'no' can be recorded for this vote. No abstentions can be noted.

Why vote now?

By voting now, the Regional Council encourages congregations to begin their processes as soon as possible. In some cases, there may be need for educational time and discussion.

Does this mean the indigenous church wants to separate?

The motion is clear – an autonomous indigenous church would be established WITHIN the United Church of Canada.

We want to see the structure before we vote!

In an effort to decolonize our thinking and to live into being courageous community, we are making an intentional decision to not dictate or control the model that the indigenous church adopts that would suit its culture and its needs. That is why this remit is structured the way that it is, and why we do not have specific answers about the structure.

What will this cost?

The budgetary envelope for the indigenous church (while small relative to the wider church) has existed for years and would continue to exist in largely the same format.

Microphones opened for debate

The microphones opened for debate, following which the question was called:

2023-05-26-27_009 MOTION (T. Demirdjian-Petro/E. McIntyre) that the Eastern Ontario Outaouais Regional Council agree to amend the Basis of Union to reflect:

1. That The United Church of Canada will be organized as follows: (1) a three-council structure, consisting of communities of faith, regional councils and a Denominational Council*; and (2) an autonomous National Indigenous Organization; and
2. That once the new autonomous National Indigenous Organization is established within The United Church of Canada, it will have its own mechanisms to make any future changes to its structure and processes, and, therefore will not be subject to the remit process under section 7.4.1 of the Basis of Union**;
3. The changes required for the establishment of the autonomous National Indigenous Organization.

CARRIED (94 in favour, 1 opposed)

* The "Denominational Council" and the "General Council" are often used interchangeably.

** The detailed proposed changes to the Basis of Union are listed in a chart on page 5 of the Study

- Samia O'Day and Wall Street United Church band/choir will be leading gathering music after lunch (and holding a little concert prior to the meeting start time).
- Norma McCord highlighted that a webinar is being offered on Refugee Sponsorship in the coming week.

Gathering Music

Gathering music was led by Samia O'Day

Setting Our Sights (Continuing of Yesterday's Presentation)

Rev. Kimberly Heath, member of the Setting Our Sights working group highlighted that the church is entering Pentecost (tomorrow), and reminded all of the retreating following the resurrection of Jesus. Believers waited and prayed for 50 days until the power of the Holy Spirit washed over them. Like in the narratives found in scripture, Kimberly invited Communities of Faith to continue praying, particularly during times when it may be called to wait for a moment, and then respond to the Spirit. Kimberly also shared some of the feedback received from table group discussions held on the previous day. Following this, the Kimberly asked that table group discussions for this day consider the following question:

4. What do we need to do over the next three years to make the 10-year dream reality.

Mohawk Bible Translation presentation

Sue Hutton shared a letter of gratitude received from the Living Into Right Relations Leadership Circle, Nakonha:ka Regional Council, for donation made by the Eastern Ontario Outaouais Regional Council, to help cover the cost of translating the Bible into Mohawk. This project has been undertaken by Elder, Harvey Gabriel, Mohawk from Kanesatake (and member at Kanesatake United Church). ### Closing Worship

Closing worship was led by Liz Church and members of the Youth and Young Adults program (YAYA). It included reflections on what had taken place over the two-day period of the meeting, heard words of wisdom like, "Courage is the commitment to begin without any guarantee of success" – Johan Wolfgang Von Goethe; and heard Scripture (Joshua 1:19). Worship also included a video presentation from the children of Église St-Marc, in which the children shared short skits, singing and dancing. Liz emphasized what she felt were some comments made by Rev. Michael Blair, General Secretary, that "the Church is called to be God's presence in the world" and that "you can only work at the speed of trust". Lis also shared some expression/sayings with members of YAYA, allowing each of them to provide their own interpretations for what was being said. Hymns sung during closing worship included: Courageous
